

Water and Power Employees' Retirement Plan

is pleased to present:

Retirement Planning

for Early/Mid-Career Employees

COURSE ID NUMBER RPS 101

This new informative and interactive seminar provides a condensed approach to fundamental concepts to assist members prepare for retirement. It will help you develop and implement a plan early in your career. Presenters will discuss tools and resources to enable you to start developing your retirement strategy based on your individual needs and priorities. This seminar will also provide you an opportunity to create your own personalized action plan to:

- ✓ Assess your current finances.
- ✓ Understand the benefits of your pension plan.
- ✓ Develop a realistic budget that includes retirement savings.
- ✓ Select savings and investments that work for you.
- ✓ Approach the estate planning process with confidence.
- ✓ Become familiar with available resources.

Who is eligible to attend? All LADWP employees who have at least five years of service. Enrollment will be done on a first-come, first-served basis.

About the Seminar:

This is a half-day class.
8:00 am - 12:00 pm

How to Enroll:

Obtain supervisory approval. Contact your Division's Training Coordinator to schedule.

Presenters:

Water and Power Employees' Retirement Plan

Water and Power Community Credit Union

Great-West Deferred Compensation

Employee Assistance Plan.

Seminar Dates:

March 2, 2011

May 4, 2011

June 1, 2011

July 6, 2011

Sept. 7, 2011

Nov. 2, 2011

Learn how to project what your true financial needs will be during retirement.

Familiarize yourself with the tools and options available to you now to make the most of your time left on the job.

Be ready to sail into retirement instead of running from the future.

